

2019

CALL TO SERVICE INITIATIVE

FACULTY & STAFF

FUNDING Now Available

thru ICCE for class/teaching, service-related, and/or research or scholarship activities and events (includes planning) to take place during calendar year 2019 (January 1–December 15, 2019)

- ✔ Applicants may submit up to two proposals (must be for two different categories)
- ✔ See below for more information and where to apply online
- ✔ Deadline for proposals (for all categories): Friday, November 30, 2018 by 5:00 pm
Applicants may submit up to two proposals (must be for two different categories)

Apply Now!

Grants are available to encourage community engagement as follows:

1) Add service learning to a course (individual course instructor)	4) Department/Program/School Level Service Learning Grant
2) Partnerships in Service Learning	5) Conference Travel (relating to civic engagement and/or service learning)
3) Student Assistant(s) for Community Service Learning (CSL) Courses	6) Civic Engagement/Civic Learning
7) Eisman Award for Engaged Scholarship - NEW!

Visit <https://icce.sfsu.edu/grants> for more information and how to apply

INSTITUTE FOR CIVIC & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

SF STATE

LEARNING TOGETHER. CREATING POSITIVE CHANGE.

Call to Service grants support SF State faculty and staff in providing service learning, community and civic engagement opportunities to students, and in disseminating service learning knowledge, research and/or findings

Funding is provided from the CSU Chancellor's Office Call to Service Initiative.